

Webinar:
Cooperation Potentials in H2 Technology: Northern Germany and Osaka

Date: 25th March 2020
Time: 8:30-10.00 am CET / 4:30-6.00 pm JST
Platform: Zoom

Program:

- 8.30am/4.30pm Welcome & Introduction to local/regional hydrogen strategies
Robert Lorenz-Meyer, Hamburg Chamber of Commerce and IHK Nord

Takayuki Toriyama, Director, Business and International Promotion
Economic Strategy Bureau, Osaka City Government

Daisuke Einaga, Manager, Environmental Measures Division,
Environment Bureau, Osaka City Government
- 8.45am/4.45pm Japan-Germany Energy Partnership as a vehicle for cooperation in H2 technology
Jana Narita, Manager, adelphi, Berlin
- 9.00am/5.00pm Introduction of H2 application projects (60 min, incl. Q&A)

Utilisation of renewable hydrogen and methane energy
Dr. Kouichi Izumiya, General Manager, Industrial Equipment Business
Unit, Global Environment Protecting Technology Development &
Business Promotion Department, Hitachi Zosen Corporation, Osaka

How we strive to realize our vision: becoming carbon neutral
Shuichi Asakura, Assistant General Manager, Regional Co-Creation
Division, Kinki Area, (Osaka) Regional Co-Creation Team, Osaka Gas
Co., Ltd., Osaka

Emission-free energy generation in shipping
Lars Ravens, CEO, E-cap Marine GmbH, Hamburg
- 9.55am/5.55pm Wrap-Up
Almut Rößner, Executive Member of the Board, OAV
- 10.00am/6.00pm End of Webinar